Douglas L. Hoots Inducted into Trial Masters

Trial Masters has the pleasure of announcing Douglas L. Hoots of Lexington, KY has been inducted as a member. Trial Masters is one of the most objectively exclusive accreditations a trial lawyer in the United States can receive. Membership is strictly limited to attorneys who have tried to verdict 35 or more trials in their career, and Douglas has tried over 50.

Douglas practices with Landrum & Shouse LLP, and is a graduate of University of Kentucky College of Law. Douglas has been practicing law since 1985 and specializes in civil litigation.

Although there are Trial Masters members in all 50 states and Washington D.C., fewer than one-half of 1% of U.S. lawyers are members. Trial Masters membership acknowledges a rare advocate that consistently is willing to take their clients' cases to the courthouse to obtain the best results for their clients.

Please see www.trialmasters.com for further details concerning membership qualifications and a roster of the membership.
